WAITING FOR THE GRAND JURY

The Senstoriei situation remains prac ticsliv unchauged.

The negotiations between the Sound Money Democrats and Blackburnites are still going on, but there are few who be lieve they will amount to anything. The Bisckburn men mede a new pley by calling up the Bell-Crumbaugh con-test, which has been slumbering in the Senate. Considerable excitement was creeted, as it was generally supposed that the silverites were going to try to unsest Senator Crumbaugh in order to get a Senator Crumbaugh in order te get a pemocratic vorte for the critical period.

The sensation which the sntl-Hunter men promise to spring before the Gread Jury is believed to be another part of the scheme to keep up excitement over the bribery charge and to enable the Grand Jury to positione its report.

FREE-TRADE vs. PROTECTION.

Comparative Figures That Ought to Forever Settle the Merits of the Systems.

The official figures of the Treasury Department at Washington are much better proof for or against any system than the unsupported declarations of Free-trade demagogues.

The Wilson-Gorman Free-trade Tariff Law has now been in operation 31 months, and THE LEDGER presents below the official figures, showing the total receipts from Internal Revenue during that period, compared with the total receipts from the same source during the first 31 months of the Mc-Kinley Protective Tariff.
